

December 3, 2008

MARINES TURN OVER MEDICINES FOR CANCER PATIENTS

The Philippine Marine Corps turned over to Philippine Cancer Society medicines for cancer patients today at the Philippine General Hospital in Manila.

Through partnership with the Philippine-based NGO Asia America Initiatives, the Philippine Marines headed by the Marine Corps Surgeon and officers of the newly activated Civil Military Operations Group (CMOG), was able to work hand in hand in order to bring the medical donations to cancer patients.

Philippine General Hospital (PGH) representative Linda Manalo received the donated medicines. Cancer patients in selected areas in Mindanao will also benefit from said donation through the humanitarian initiatives of the Philippine Marine Corps and its partner-NGO's.