

December 18, 2009

Army chief brings cheers to FBGH patients

FORT ANDRES BONIFACIO – Army chief Lt Gen Delfin N Bangit brought the yuletide cheers to the battle and non-battle casualties confined at the Fort Bonifacio General Hospital during his Christmas visit this afternoon.

With Lt Gen Bangit were the General staff of the Headquarters Philippine Army and the officers and members of the Philippine Army Officers Ladies Club led by Mrs Daisy Bangit.

As an expression of his gratitude and appreciation to the contributions of Army soldiers, particularly those who have risked lives and limb in line of duty, Lt Gen Bangit distributed gifts and grocery items, as he exhorts the soldiers to continue to fight for the cause of peace.

Lt Gen Bangit's visit is a fulfillment of his commitment to serve the Philippine Army soldiers better.