The Communications Electronics Information Systems Service, AFP (CEISSAFP) headed by its Commander, BGEN RICARDO B BUTALID JR AFP distributed school bags and various school supplies including notebooks, pencils, ball pens, pad papers, crayons and scissors for the children of CEISSAFP military and civilian personnel in time for the school opening in June. The event was participated by Officers, Enlisted Personnel, spouses, and civilian employees of the Command with school children up to sixth grade.

The activity was held at the newly renovated CEISSAFP Social Hall with three hundred thirteen (313) children benefiting from the program. Since its inception in 2008, CEISSAFP personnel and dependents anxiously waited for the repetition of this laudable command activity. The beneficiaries expressed their gratefulness and great appreciation to our Commander as it helped ease up their financial burdens. The distribution of school supplies was replicated in other CEISSAFP units throughout the country as part of the Command's morale boosting efforts.
